

A Master Instructor by Allen Rohrer

1. Is able to certify others as FFF Fly Casting Instructors.
2. Should be able to teach other how to be good casters. Also, be able to teach casting instructors how to be effective and capable teachers.
3. Should have a broad range of experience.
4. Should be able to identify casting faults and how to correct them.
5. Should be able to explain how to correct casting faults several different ways
6. Should be able to communicate well with people.
7. Should have lots of patience and a small ego.
8. Should realize, that almost anyone can and will learn how to fly cast, given proper instructions and if they have the desire.
9. Should try to make instructing and teaching enjoyable and fun for everyone involved.